

We are excited to tell you!

The City Club
Los Angeles has a
new Executive Chef,
Drew Andrade!

Chef Andrade started his Los Angeles career at the famous Chateau Marmont. Soon after he landed a job as sous chef at Wolfgang Puck's famed Beverly Hills hotspot Spago.

Seeking out the opportunity of a lifetime, Andrade relocated to Spain where he worked as the mentee of Martin Beresategliat his restaurant, which received an impressive three Michelin stars.

Since then he has opened restaurants in Dubai, Miami, Moscow, Kazan and Hong Kong. He has just circled back to his favorite home town of Los Angeles and landed at the City Club.

Looking forward to having you with us, a great night for a great cause!